

Newsletter April 2007

How is everyone? We have been quite busy lately and are looking forward to this Saturday night when we record our performance at the Aztec Bar in Belgrave for a Live DVD. We hope you can make it and would suggest get in early. It should be a big night. On Friday we are at the Monash Hotel in Clayton, so we'll use that as a warm up gig for the Saturday!

Still getting airplay in Finland amongst others and downloads from Somersault Music are going to places like Hawaii, Hollywood, Madrid, Portugal, Saint Michell Chef Chef (France), San Diego, Vienna, Phoenix, UK and of course Finland.

We have had a review in the April edition of Rhythms magazine, Australia's Roots monthly available at good newsagents and I do believe Borders Bookshops stock it also.

The Darren Jones benefit was a success and will be an annual event at the Aztec Bar. If you missed this year's event try to make next years. It was a great mix of music.
